STIPULATED ORDER EXTENDING CASE DEADLINES

On October 6, 2023, the Sixth Circuit affirmed in part and reversed in party this Court's order adopting the report and recommendation to dismiss

Plaintiff O'Connor's lawsuit with prejudice. ECF No. 32. Both sides have petition to the United States Supreme Court for review of that appellate decision. The Supreme Court is considering both petitions at its September 30, 2024 conference. This Court thereafter stayed class discovery but allowed individual discovery to go forward.

Given the nearness of decisions on the petitions and for party economy, it is agreed and stipulated that the current deadline for any individual dispositive motions is extended by sixty (60) days. Following the outcome of the September 30, 2024 conference, counsel is to inform the Court of the same and either submit a proposed stipulated order to set a status conference or otherwise propose new deadlines for case resolution.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: September 12, 2024
